Hailed as the definitive biography of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the Pulitzer committee described "King: A Life" as "a revelatory portrait of Dr. King that draws on new sources to enrich our understanding of each stage of the civil rights leader's life, exploring his strengths and weaknesses, including the self-questioning and depression that accompanied his determination."

Eig's previous book, "Ali: A Life," won a 2018 PEN America Literary Award, and he served as consulting producer for the Ken Burns-directed PBS series "Muhammad Ali." A former senior writer for the "Wall Street Journal," Eig has written several other biographies and works of non-fiction.

Open to members of the B'nai Sholom community and friends
